

PRIVACY POLICY

Baby Swimming will use your contact details to update you with information regarding the current Baby Swimming course you are attending or have booked and are about to attend.

We send you details of the upcoming courses if you are on a course currently or have requested that information. We may use your contact details to ask for course payment if the payment is outstanding.

We use your contact details to advise you of professional photo shoots offered by our professional photographer. Please advise if you wish to opt out of these notifications.

Baby Swimming does not share your contact details with third parties or pass your details to any company or individual.

When you no longer attend Baby Swimming courses we may keep your contact details for a short period after the end of your course. We will not contact you unless you are attending a course or have expressed interest in being notified of upcoming courses.
